

UNIT	VOCABULARY / USE OF ENGLISH	GRAMMAR	ENGLISH IN PRACTICE	LISTENING	SPEAKING	READING	WRITING
21	a) Weights and measures. b) Differences between "to do" and "to make". c) Physical activities and sports.	a) Uses of "how" (II). b) Verbs used to send correspondence. c) There was / There were.	I will do you a favor.	a) Expressions used in "Vocabulary / Use of English" section. b) "Grammar" section. c) Learning is fun with music and movies.	Everyday English role plays.		Writing a text comparing two people.
22	a) Verbs related to money. b) At the bank.	a) Tag questions. b) Use of "still" and "yet". c) Expressions used to enumerate and order actions.	I pay the mortgage.	a) Expressions used in "Vocabulary / Use of English" section. b) "Grammar" section. c) Learning is fun with music and movies.	Everyday English role plays.	Comprehension activities.
23	a) Electronic mail / E-mailing. b) The verbs "wait", "expect" and "hope". c) In the apartment. d) Shapes and materials.	a) The genitive case. b) Prepositions describing placement (in, on, at). c) Adjectives related to work.	Furnishing the apartment.	a) Expressions used in "Vocabulary / Use of English" section. b) "Grammar" section. c) Learning is fun with music and movies.	Everyday English role plays.	Reading for gist. Scanning texts for specific information. Comprehension activities.
24	a) Expressions about the order at home. b) The housework.	a) Possessive pronouns. b) The interrogative pronoun "whose". c) "Too" and "either".	Did you order your room?	a) Expressions used in "Vocabulary / Use of English" section. b) "Grammar" section. c) Learning is fun with music and movies.	Everyday English role plays.		Writing an email.
25	a) Verbs and expressions regarding how someone looks. b) Making suggestions.	a) The future (will, going to). b) Expressions with "both", "either" and "neither".	Why don't you know her?	a) Expressions used in "Vocabulary / Use of English" section. b) "Grammar" section. c) Learning is fun with music and movies.	Everyday English role plays.		Writing a message on your Facebook timeline.